

Employee Policy Handbook

Version

Version: 1.0

Effective Date: January 1, 2026

1. Purpose

This Employee Policy Handbook establishes the standards, responsibilities, and expectations for all employees of the company. The objective of these policies is to promote a professional, respectful, secure, and productive workplace while ensuring consistency and fairness across the organization.

Every employee is expected to read, understand, and comply with the policies described in this handbook.

2. Scope

These policies apply to:

- Full-time employees
- Part-time employees
- Contract employees
- Remote employees
- Interns and trainees (where applicable)

Additional department-specific policies may also apply.

3. Working Hours

Standard Working Days

The standard work week consists of:

- Monday to Friday
- Saturday and Sunday are designated weekly holidays unless otherwise required by business operations.

Office Hours

Standard working hours are:

9:00 AM – 6:00 PM

This includes:

- 8 working hours
- 1-hour lunch break

Departments may adjust schedules based on business requirements with management approval.

Attendance

Employees are expected to:

- Report to work on time.
- Maintain regular attendance.
- Inform their manager in advance if they will be late or absent.
- Record attendance using the company's approved attendance system.

Frequent lateness or unauthorized absence may result in disciplinary action.

Overtime

Overtime must be approved by the employee's reporting manager before additional work is performed.

Compensation or compensatory leave for overtime will follow company policy and applicable employment laws.

4. Leave Policy

The company recognizes the importance of maintaining a healthy work-life balance. Employees are encouraged to plan their leave responsibly while ensuring minimal disruption to business operations.

4.1 Annual Leave

Employees are entitled to:

18 working days of Annual Leave per calendar year.

Purpose:

- Vacation
- Personal travel
- Family commitments
- Rest and recreation

Conditions:

- Leave should be planned in advance.
 - Approval from the reporting manager is required.
 - Unused leave may be carried forward or encashed only if permitted by company policy.
-

4.2 Casual Leave

Employees receive:

12 days of Casual Leave per year.

Casual Leave may be used for:

- Personal work
- Family events
- Short personal emergencies
- Unexpected commitments

Employees should apply at least one working day in advance whenever possible.

4.3 Sick Leave

Employees are entitled to:

12 days of Sick Leave per calendar year.

Sick Leave may be used when:

- The employee is ill.
- Medical treatment is required.
- Recovery from illness is necessary.

For absences exceeding three consecutive working days, the company may request a medical certificate.

4.4 Earned Leave

Employees may earn additional leave based on company policy and length of service.

Earned Leave:

- Is accrued monthly.
 - May be accumulated within company limits.
 - Can be used for planned vacations or personal commitments.
 - May be eligible for leave encashment where applicable.
-

4.5 Emergency Leave

Employees may request Emergency Leave in unforeseen situations such as:

- Family emergencies
- Medical emergencies
- Natural disasters
- Urgent personal matters

Approval should be requested as soon as reasonably possible.

4.6 Unpaid Leave

If all paid leave has been exhausted, employees may request unpaid leave.

Approval depends on:

- Business requirements
 - Employee performance
 - Manager approval
 - HR approval
-

4.7 Public Holidays

Employees are entitled to all officially declared public holidays recognized by the company.

Employees required to work on a public holiday may receive compensatory leave or other benefits according to company policy.

Leave Approval Process

Employees should:

1. Submit leave requests through the approved HR or leave management system.
2. Obtain approval from their reporting manager.
3. Ensure proper handover of ongoing work before leave begins.
4. Inform relevant team members when necessary.

Unauthorized leave or repeated absence without notification may lead to disciplinary action.

5. Code of Conduct

The company expects every employee to maintain the highest standards of integrity and professionalism.

Employees shall:

- Treat colleagues with dignity and respect.
- Maintain honesty in all business activities.
- Follow company policies and procedures.
- Avoid conflicts of interest.
- Respect workplace diversity.
- Communicate professionally.
- Maintain a positive work environment.
- Protect company property.

Employees must not:

- Engage in harassment or discrimination.
- Use abusive or offensive language.
- Falsify company records.
- Misuse company resources.
- Engage in unethical behavior.

Violations may result in disciplinary action, including termination of employment.

6. Information Security

Protecting company information is the responsibility of every employee.

Employees must:

- Use strong, unique passwords.
- Enable Multi-Factor Authentication (MFA) where available.
- Lock computers when away from their workspace.
- Keep software updated.
- Report suspicious emails or cybersecurity incidents immediately.
- Store confidential information only in approved company systems.
- Follow secure software development practices where applicable.

Employees must never:

- Share passwords.
- Share confidential information with unauthorized persons.
- Install unauthorized software.
- Use personal devices for confidential company data without approval.
- Copy company data for personal use.

Failure to comply with security policies may result in disciplinary action.

7. Confidentiality

Employees may have access to confidential information including:

- Customer information

- Business strategies
- Financial records
- Source code
- Product designs
- Internal documentation
- Employee information

Employees must maintain confidentiality during employment and after leaving the company.

Unauthorized disclosure of confidential information is strictly prohibited.

8. Remote Work Policy

Employees approved for remote work must maintain the same standards of productivity and professionalism as office-based employees.

Employees are expected to:

- Attend all scheduled meetings on time.
- Maintain a reliable internet connection.
- Be available during working hours.
- Respond to work-related communications promptly.
- Update task progress regularly.
- Maintain a secure work environment.
- Protect company devices and data.

Remote employees should ensure their workspace is quiet, safe, and suitable for professional work.

9. Workplace Behavior

Employees should contribute to a respectful and inclusive workplace by:

- Cooperating with colleagues.
- Supporting teamwork.
- Listening respectfully.
- Resolving disagreements professionally.
- Avoiding workplace gossip.

- Maintaining positive relationships.

Discrimination, bullying, intimidation, or harassment will not be tolerated.

10. Company Property

Employees are responsible for company-issued assets including:

- Laptops
- Mobile phones
- Security cards
- Software licenses
- Documents
- Equipment

Employees must:

- Use company property responsibly.
 - Report damage immediately.
 - Return all assets upon resignation or termination.
-

11. Internet and Email Usage

Company internet and email systems are intended primarily for business purposes.

Employees should:

- Use company email professionally.
- Avoid downloading unauthorized software.
- Avoid accessing inappropriate websites.
- Report phishing attempts immediately.

The company reserves the right to monitor company-owned systems in accordance with applicable laws and company policies.

12. Performance Expectations

Employees are expected to:

- Complete assigned work on time.
- Produce high-quality work.
- Meet agreed performance objectives.
- Communicate effectively.
- Participate in training and professional development.
- Accept constructive feedback positively.

Performance reviews may be conducted periodically.

13. Health and Safety

The company is committed to providing a safe and healthy work environment.

Employees should:

- Follow all safety procedures.
 - Report workplace hazards immediately.
 - Use equipment safely.
 - Cooperate during emergency situations.
 - Participate in safety training when required.
-

14. Disciplinary Policy

Failure to comply with company policies may result in disciplinary action.

Depending on the severity of the violation, disciplinary measures may include:

- Verbal warning
- Written warning
- Final warning
- Suspension
- Termination of employment

Serious misconduct may result in immediate disciplinary action.

15. Policy Review

The company may amend or update these policies at any time to meet business, legal, or operational requirements.

Employees will be notified of significant policy changes.

16. Employee Acknowledgement

All employees are required to acknowledge that they have read, understood, and agree to comply with the policies contained in this Employee Policy Handbook.

Failure to comply with these policies may result in disciplinary action in accordance with company procedures.